Our use of collected data

Use of our services

When you are signing up in order to make use of any of our services, we are asking you to fill out personal data. This data is being used to carry out these services. The data is being saved to the secured servers of CT Lashes or those of a third party. We will not combine this data with any other personal data we may have.

Communication

In case you are sending us email or other messages, it could be that we are saving those messages. It might be that we are asking for personal data which are relevant for the given situation. This makes it possible to answer to your questions and process your requests. The data is being saved to the secured servers of CT Lashes or those of a third party. We will not combine this data with any other personal data we may have.

Purposes

We are collecting or using no information for purposes other than being described in this policy, unless we have received the explicit consent of you for this beforehand.

Third parties

The information is not being shared with third parties. In some cases information may be disclosed internally. Our employees are obliged to respect the confidentiality of your data.

Changes

This policy is adapted to the use and possibilities of this website. Possible changes and/or updates of this website may lead to a revision of this policy. Due to this fact we are advising our customers to consult our policies on a regular basis.

Personal data

We are offering all visitors the possibility to view, change or remove all personal data which has been disclosed to us at any moment. If you want to have your data removed from our data log you can contact us on info@ct-lashes.com.

Newsletter

Under every mailing you will find the possibility to change your preferences or to unsubscribe yourself from the mailing list.

Disable cookies

Most browsers will accept cookies automatically. However, you can change the settings of your browser in order to disable all cookies, or to receive a notification of when cookies are being sent. It might however be that some functions and/or services of our website are not functioning correctly when cookies are being disabled.
